

TOURISM FORUM

26 September 2019

Distinction Hotel | Te Anau

The AF8 Tourism Forum invites scientists, emergency managers and tourism operators to discuss how can the tourism sector be better prepared for large scale natural hazard events, like an AF8 earthquake?

0900	Coffee and registration
0930	Opening address
0950	The AF8 Scenario Associate Prof. Thomas Wilson – University of Canterbury / Resilience to Nature’s Challenges
1015	Perspectives on the RTO role in a natural disaster Tim Hunter – CEO of Christchurch and Canterbury Tourism at the time of the Feb 2011 earthquake
1100	Morning tea
1115	Destination Southland Strategy Bobbi Brown – Great South
1130	Tourists and Transients Prof. David Simmons – Lincoln University
1150	Understanding Tourist Movements Mat Darling – University of Canterbury
1210	Fiordland Hazard Group and the Milford earthquake response Paul le Roux – Emergency Management Southland
1220	Lunch
1300	The SAFER Framework and examples of what could be done Angus McKay – Emergency Management Southland / AF8 Chairperson
1330	The Importance of Business Continuity Brenden Winder – Wayfare Group
1345	Afternoon tea
1400	Table-top exercise / workshop
1600	End

